Message From Our President

Members, procrastinated writing my article because I always want to be positive in all my presentations. So, just let me get this out of the way, and I will be positive again.

First, I left our last meeting with a heavy heart. I did not think we had a positive and fruitful meeting. When people talk out of turn, interrupt and talk over others, it is not beneficial and I don't think we get the most out of the different view points that are presented. We will always have opinions that may not be the same as other's. That is a good thing, because we have a chance to hear various thoughts on a subject. Just because we may not agree does not mean we need to be adversarial. When we have so much turmoil and commotion that the secretary can't even keep up with the motions, seconds, what is on the table, etc., we need to slow down and keep our comments in order. I don't want to belabor this at all. We are all grown up women with wonderful talents among us, so we need to work together in a spirit of "Harmony, Kindness, and Forbearance" to find the best solution for Philo when we have a question or an issue.

That being said, let's move on to more positive things! The Chamber of Commerce will be having their Annual Dinner on January 19 at Ellis Ranch. They give out their awards at that event. I am nominating The Loveland Philomatheon Club for the Non Profit of the Year award. I think it would be great to win that for our 100 Year Anniversary!

As of this time, I don't know what the Dine Out With Heart proceeds ended up to be, but I know the committee put a lot of effort and time into making it a big success. I know I personally went out to support the cause 3 times during the event! I am sure other Philo members did, and I hope many, many others in Loveland supported Dine Out With Heart.

This is the month that we focus on being "Thankful". Thankful that we live in a wonderful country, thankful for our families, thankful for our work and our health, thankful for our friends, thankful for the opportunity to be part of Philo and able to help all the people that we can throughout the year. Thankful for all of you and what you bring to the table as members! Thank you!

Best Regards,

Miki Roth

100th Year Anniversary

Thank you to Business After Hours Committee, Diane Meuret, Mary Ann Lane and Anne Anderson and all of the Philo members that contributed food to help make the October Fest event at First Bank a huge success.

Committee members had the help of Charlotte Schmidt, Schmidt's Bakery, to make 83 Krautburgers in Kathy Loken's kitchen. Lots of flour and laughter!!

FROM THE HISTORIAN--Linda Stangel

Did you know that you can look at all of the documents that I have created or collected about Philo's history?

On the Members-Only web page, you will find a "File Cabinet" icon that will give you access to the newspaper articles, scrapbook summaries, and membership lists that I have compiled. You will also find Meeting Minute Archives from 2008-2011 and Newsletter Archives from 2005-2011.

Unfortunately, we have no scrapbooks since 2007. In the digital age, the scrapbooks seem inconvenient and irrelevant. However, gathering and storing materials is complicated by changing technologies and diverse software/hardware. As Historian, I have no materials from the last ten years.

Many of you have taken photos of your committees or created slide-shows for the Spring Dinner. If you have any photos or files that would be appropriate for a digital library, please forward them to me [lindastangel@gmail.com]. News clippings and other print material are also welcome.

We have a rich history of community service and lasting friendships. Let's make an effort to preserve the present and be part of Philo's legacy.

SHOPPING EXTRAVAGANZA

We all had a wonderful time at the Extravaganza. We enjoyed visiting with friends, shopping, lunch, cupcakes, wine, hand massages and paraffin dip. They gave out 50% more prizes this year in the raffle. Jessica, the Outlet Mall coordinator, said this was our best Extravaganza to date and that should translate into more money for Philo. We'll have our final numbers at our November meeting.

Thanks to all who helped by buying tickets or making a donation. A special thanks to Juanita Cisneros and Marthann Dallen for helping to sell tickets at the meetings and to Betty Brammer and Marge McCoy for working a shift in the cupcake room.

Please return your empty jelly jars.
Enjoying my chocolate,
Kay Robinson, Chairman
