Message From Our President

Philo Sisters

Another year, another century of providing support for our community! And, what an exciting year it will be!

I hope everyone had a wonderful, relaxing and hot summer! Although we've been on break from our monthly meetings, our committees have been hard at work. Dine Out With Heart is ready to roll out another successful fundraiser that is focused on eliminating hunger in our community. And, this year you'll have the opportunity to help with this fundraiser without being on the committee! So, sign up at the September meeting! Mark your calendars for the first two weeks of October to dine at one of our local restaurants and support Philo.

The 100 Year Committee is wrapping up the planning for the Autumn Gala and ready to open the doors to this wonderful event to raise funds to support Alternative to Violence. If you haven't purchased your ticket to this amazing event—hurry! It will be a sellout! Don't miss out—bring your check book (or plastic) to bid on the silent auction items. Can't wait!

This year, we are privileged to welcome 8 new members: Janice Marchman (Jeanne Findley); Brianne Smith, Ruth Swanty, Patti Gabelman (Stacey Kersley); Phyllis Wasmuth and Leslie Herman (Dianne McInturff); Cindy Glass (Shannon Voggeser); and, Cheryl Hitchens (Kathy Matsunaka). Please support them in transitioning into their first year of Philo.

As we can all recall, last year we updated our bylaws. Please make sure that you are familiar with these bylaws as they will be our guide. As a special note—all applications for new members are due MARCH 1 to the Vice President, Shannon Voggeser. The Board will review these applications prior to bringing forward the list of candidates at the March meeting. Applications are online and will be available at each meeting.

Enjoy the waning days of summer—get energized! We have a tremendous amount of work ahead of us to continue to support the needs of our community.

Please feel free to contact me, if needed. And remember: We may not always agree with each other, but we can always be kind to one another!

Jeanne Findley

President 2018-19

FALL SHOPPING EXTRAVAGANZA

We're all gearing up for a fun day of shopping at the Extravaganza at the Outlet Mall on October 20th!! Tickets @ $20 each will be available before and after the Sept. and Oct. meetings. Philo gets half of the ticket money back, plus a portion of raffle ticket sales as long as we purchase 50 tickets. My chokecherry jelly will be given out to those who purchase tickets at the meetings.

We will have a brief committee meeting @ 6:15 pm on Sept. 11th before general meeting. Currently the committee consists of myself, Marge McCoy and Juanita Cisneros. We could use one more person. Call me if you are interested. It's a fun committee!

Respectfully submitted,
Kay Robinson, Chair
667-0993 or 214-0053

DUCK RACE NEWS...

The Rotary Duck Race ticket sales was another success. We sold 378 tickets and Philo's 80% of the sales totaled $864. Thank you to all who purchased tickets and hopefully we have some winners to report to the club.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Voggesser, chair
Diane Meuret, vice chair

Here's the scoop...

Early Childhood has been busy since mid July. Most school supplies were ordered but some Target items we just had to make multiple trips. It was much easier ordering in bulk this year. We made fast work of assembling the school bags and will deliver them the week of the 27th.

We will also be delivering a "Pete the Cat" book along with a story board set for each classroom.

The Dine Out With Heart committee requests volunteers to help during the October 1-14 fundraiser. This does not require any committee meetings, just helping us out with the fundraiser as a “runner” or a “counter”. Last year there were 23 participating businesses. This year we have at least 32 businesses with the possibility of having up to 43 signing up to participate. The committee could use volunteers to be a “runner” or “counter”.

Runner obligations:

Tuesday September 25 or Thursday the 26: Pick up the fundraiser materials from Betty Brammer’s home.

By Friday September 28: Deliver materials to your assigned businesses.

Monday October 8: Pick up the donation envelopes from the businesses and deliver to a committee member.

Tuesday, October 9: Deliver the server prizes and patron winner information on drawings offered by businesses.

Sometime October 17-21: Pick up all donation envelopes and fundraiser materials from the businesses and deliver to a committee member.

Sometime soon after Thursday October 25: Deliver server prizes and patron winner information on drawings offered by businesses.

Counter obligations:

Come Monday October 8 at 6:30 to Betty Brammer’s home to open envelopes and count donations and/or come Thursday October 25 to open envelopes and count donations, same location and same time. Last year we opened over 800 total envelopes and had a blast doing so while drinking wine and laughing a lot!

As the fundraiser gets bigger and bigger each year, the committee will continue to need volunteers to help. Without additional volunteers, the committee members will have an unrealistic amount of work to make this fundraiser as successful as it can possibly become. Your help would be much appreciated. Contact Dona Menzies at 970-667-6656 or 970-481-4923 or email dmenzies123@gmail.com. You can also let me know at the Philo general meeting, September 11.

HARVESTING HOPE FOR A BRIGHTER TOMORROW

Harvest Moon Gala

October 20th Ellis Ranch

Celebrating 100 years of service couldn't be more gratifying than hosting the Gala to benefit Alternatives to Violence's Transitional Living Center. Ellis Ranch is a meaningful site to hold this event, as Roxie Ellis was a driving force in 1982 to begin the concept of providing alternatives to women and/or men caught in a spiral of troubled times. Philo has a long history of supporting ATV and especially the Transitional Living Center as the organization sponsored the first apartment. Commitment to TLC continues to this day.

The culmination of our 100 Year Anniversary, with this event has taken the gifts of time, talent, and dedication, (sometimes perseverance) of our Philo members. Sponsorships and donations have been overwhelming, auction items off the chart. A bonus has been the bonding of friendships with old and new members as committees work together.

You or your significant other could be driving home this Mercedes Kit Car donated by Barry Floyd for the live auction.

There is limited time to be part of living the history and making the memory!
