The committee is also interested in any new donors who would like to contribute. Friends, neighbors, or family members are encouraged to help with this worthy and very gratifying project. ## A note from our President... Chatty Kathi Says

Congratulations to the new Philo members on a great skit! The laughter was good for me, and I hope it was good for you, too. Also, the night at the dinner theater provided some great laugh therapy. Thanks to the Social Committee for setting that up. Cindy Kurtz and I both won the keys to a car...no car, just the keys. It was fun! I don't know about the rest of you, but I really need as much laughter as I can get right now. My mom had her hip replaced, and there were some tough moments. I'm realizing more and more how Philo provides a safety net that can really help each of us in times of need.

When Rita Harden shared a "Piece of History" at the October meeting, it choked me up a bit to think about 90 years of women working and playing together for such good causes. I know we'll have 90 more!

In November we have a chance to make more memories with "Girls Night Out" downtown. I hope many of you will bring loads of girlfriends. This is such an easy way to raise money....shopping and eating! It is Thursday, November 20th. BE THERE OR BE SQUARE!

Kathi Wright, President

GIRLS NIGHT OUT

WHEN: November 20th

WHERE: Downtown Loveland

WHY: To share an evening of dining and shopping with our Philo sisters and friends, and show support for the downtown Loveland merchants who so kindly support us with their donations to our organization. The merchants will donate back 10% of the evenings' proceeds.

This year, our shopping support will be even more meaningful to the downtown merchants. There are 5 restaurants and 9 merchants participating in the event.

Restaurants include The Inglenook, Monaco Trattoria, Cipoletti's Italian Restaurant, 4th Street Chop House, and Henry's Pub. Seatings for dinner at each of the restaurants will be at 5:30 or 7:00 p.m. Please come prepared to pay your dinner bill with either cash or check. This will ease the burden on the server as well as reducing the cost to the restaurant. Several of the restaurants have put together a dinner package at a cost of $22.00 to $25.00 that will include an entree, glass of wine, tax and tip.

Three new merchants are participating this year. Merchant Voyage, 246 E. 4th St, Renaud Naturals, 101 E. 5th St. (1 block west of 5th St. and Cleveland Ave.), and the Wool Basket, 526 N.

Cleveland. Almost a Mercantile, Anthology Book Company, Cloz, Blue Moon Creations, Southern Scent, and Kitchen Alley have all agreed again this year to extend their shopping hours for us. As an added bonus to encourage every shopper to get to every store, many of the owners will hold a drawing for gifts. Sign up as you shop in each store, and you could come home with extra prizes!

Once again, for the Philo members who brings the most guests, Johna Cabrera and Denise Olson will give a prize of Zapata jewelry for first and second place. Bring all your friends, neighbors, and family out this year. We need your enthusiastic participation!

Karen Sanders,
Chairwoman, Girls Night Out

Canned Food Drive –

December 12th & 13th

The canned food drive will be held at the First United Methodist Church, (Coy Hall), 533 North Grant Ave. on Friday, Dec. 12th, and Saturday, Dec. 13th. The food drive is the major support for the Christmas food basket program.

Last year, the drive provided food for approximately 200 baskets (Christmas meals, and a little bit more). 8,000 pounds of canned and dry goods were donated to the Larimer County food bank. At an average of 1 1/4 pounds per meal per person, we have helped many people in their time of need.

WE STILL NEED A GREAT DEAL OF HELP

We are very short of members with trucks or vans who can pick up the canned food from the participating schools on Friday, Dec. 12th. We also need volunteers to sign up for a shift helping to sort and organize the food. We will have Bill Reed Middle School and Mountain View High School students to help with sorting and heavy lifting on Friday and Saturday.

This event requires help from all Philo members to be successful. If you have not already signed up to help, please do so at the November meeting or contact Lynn McDonough at 667-0865. It is so important that we each give at least two hours of our time to help the needy families of our community.

One of the great satisfactions in life is giving help to others! Join us in making this a reality.

Sherry King and Peggy Pellizzari,
Canned Food Drive Co-Chairwomen

Special Event!!

Philo honorary and local celebrity Sharon Sheets has an exciting invitation to extend to the membership. Sharon will be appearing in two local upcoming productions, and has cast incentive discount tickets that she has generously offered to Philo members.

The Carousel Dinner Theatre will present Irving Berlin's "White Christmas" from November 1st through January 3. The offer includes dinner, non-alcoholic drinks, dessert, tax and gratuity along with the show. The cost is $40.00 per person. Payment must go through Sharon, but you can call and make your own reservation. A voucher will be mailed to you with the special price, which you will present at the show. Contact Sharon at 667-4899, or ssheetsmame@comcast.net if interested.

On Monday, November 10, Sharon will be starring in the "Veteran's Day Celebration with Sharon Sheets," at the Chilson Senior Center. The review includes a narrative of the events of WWII, wartime fashions, popular movie and Broadway musicals of the day, and notes the sacrifices made by civilians for the war effort. The tribute is an affirmation of our appreciation for all they gave for our freedom.

Cost is $15.00 per person, $12.00 (with a senior activity card), and the show is for guests 18 and older. Good old American apple and cherry pie will be served! For more information, call 962-2783.

ALTERNATIVES TO VIOLENCE

The committee will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 11th before the general meeting.

Joyce Krantz
Alternatives to Violence, Chairwoman

Publicity Committee

Everyone should be thinking of ways to promote Philo in the community. One of the best ways is by word of mouth. At least once this month, challenge yourself to mention Philo and its service to someone who is not familiar with our organization.

The final order for Philo golf shirts has been submitted. We have someone who would like to trade a size XL for a Large. We have one more XL available for purchase.

Please refer to the publicity packet for a checklist of ideas before, during, and after an event. Committees are responsible for devising their own publicity, but the committee is available to assist. Nine yard signs and several folding signs are available from Linda Stangel.

If you have anything that you would like to see included in the Reporter-Herald Club Notes, please send it to Linda Stangel at least one week before the general meeting.

Photography and Disclosure Information forms should be turned in to Dottie Childers.

Anyone who submits a photo or information to the news media or for publication on the internet (including the Philo newsletter and members only page) should check with Dottie Childers or Linda Stangel for names of members who have declined to be included.

Publicity Chairwoman

Thinking of you...

The Sunshine teams prepared meals for Lola Johnson as she recuperates from surgery.

In Sympathy...

Our sincere sympathy was expressed to Carol and John Helzer for the loss of John's mother, and to Lynn McDonough for the loss of her father.

The Sunshine Committee represents Philo by sending appropriate expressions of care and concern for illness, sympathy, or congratulations. Please inform any committee member when occasions arise that require their services.
